

FIBER OPTIC TECH

Job Summary

Fibre optic technician required for immediate start in 2018, work will mainly be in the Limerick/Tipperary/Kerry area but may be required to travel further a field from time to time.

Responsibilities: - Installation of fiber optic cables, Preparation of cables and joint enclosure Fusion splicing with Fujikura machine on fiber optic cables - Test optical fiber using EXFO OTDRs and insertion loss testing - Work at a rapid pace with an excellent level of quality. - Follow design schematics and management direction. - Work at heights and in various challenging field environments - Follow all safety procedures and method statements, ensure a correct usage and cleaning procedures of tools and equipment, follow safe working practices and site security protocols, and wear PPE at all time. The right individual will receive good pay rate and incentive bonuses per jointing enclosures

Responsibilities and Duties

Desired skills and experiences: - 3 years minimum experience as a Fiber Optic splicing tech. Experience in working on either Eir Or SIRO live networks to perform window cuts and under outage process is an advantage. - Must be responsible, detail oriented with proven organization skills and autonomous - Must have all relevant H&S accreditation and certification (Safepass, traffic signing, Manual handling, MEWP, etc). - Full C1 Driver's License

Qualifications and Skills

City and Guild qualification or similar desired. Experience is a major advantage.

SLG an advantage

Benefits

Pay rates will be negotiable determined by experience, speed and quality of work. Excellent pay incentives for the right, motivated individual. Company van and work equipment will be supplied.